

Horsense, LLC Release

For all injuries associated with horses or equine activity

Participants Name _____

Address _____

As an Equine Facilitated Learning Professional, Amanda Domingo's goal is to enhance the overall wellbeing of participants through their interaction with horses. EFLC is an experiential way for people to learn about themselves and others by interacting and being in relationship with horses.

As a result, participants may experience emotional expansion, increased sensory awareness, and learn to interpret the language of sensations, becoming more grounded, confident, and aware of non-verbal communication. Participants experience these and more by grooming, groundwork, riding, observation of herd dynamics, horse painting, individual and group processing. However, due to their size and nature I hereby acknowledge and agree as follows:

1. Horses are large animals and there are inherent physical risks and dangers associated with being in contact with horses. I, and/or my dependent, could incur injury or death from handling horses, leading horses, mounting or riding horses, or being near horses
2. I have executed this release willingly and after having read or been advised of the following state law. Under Colorado Law, an equine professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities pursuant to Section 13-21-119, Colorado Revised Statutes
3. I understand that Amanda Dumenigo is an Equine Professional. I hereby release Amanda Dumenigo, and anyone associated with Amanda Dumenigo, from claim for injury or death resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities, including but not limited to the facility owners Barbara and Richard Cargill and Silk Road Studio located at 5976 Hygiene Road, Longmont, CO 80503
